

Carnahan Group Held Second Annual Client Summit

Nationwide healthcare advisory firm announced its newest features and services.

TAMPA, FL, March 4, 2020 – Carnahan Group, one of the nation’s leading healthcare advisory firms, held its annual Client Summit event for a diverse group of partners. This year’s summit included the following topics: compliance trends, needs assessments, FMV-MD™ updates, and roundtable discussions.

“This summit gave our team an invaluable opportunity to spend time with clients in an intimate and interactive setting,” says Chris Carnahan, President of Carnahan Group. “We welcomed all feedback from clients whether it be current workflow challenges or how we can utilize our software and services to increase growth for each organization.”

This summit also provided an opportunity for clients to hear firsthand about the evolution of the FMV-MD™ platform and its newest modules that are second to none in today’s market.

More about Carnahan Group

Video: Healthcare Fair Market Valuations (FMVs)

This brief video explains why Healthcare Fair Market Valuations (FMVs) are extremely important, particularly for Healthcare practitioners and decision-makers. Understanding this importance is key to seeking a competent consultant to assist with this process.

Video: Commercial Reasonableness

An important aspect of Healthcare Valuations that is often ignored is the notion of Commercial Reasonableness. This responds to the question of whether a practice would use a certain type of professional to perform needed services or not, in a commercially viable manner.
